

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT STRATEGY

Report of the Director of Housing & Customer Service

1. SUMMARY OF REPORT

It is essential for Derby Homes to have a performance management strategy which clearly outlines our vision for the next 5 years. This strategy defines the key elements of this vision and describes how we intend to achieve it.

2. RECOMMENDATION

2.1 To note and approve the performance management strategy.

3. MATTER FOR CONSIDERATION

3.1 The performance management strategy is attached at Appendix 1.

3.2 It was considered by the Performance Management Committee in February and May 2007 and approved, subject to amendments agreed. The Performance Management Committee recommends it to the Board for acceptance.

3.3 In summary the strategy defines the vision and clarifies the essential elements of effective performance management.

3.4 The strategy outlines where we are now and details our aspirations for the development of effective performance management within the organisation.

3.5 The strategy will be owned by the Performance Team and the Performance Management Committee. Delivery of the strategy has been incorporated within the Service Improvement Targets for this team.
