Approaches Q3 2011 - 2016

Headline Information

278 households approached the authority as homeless during quarter three 2016/17, compared to 148 during quarter three 2015/16, an increase of 130 (88%).

The overall total number of households approaching the authority as homeless during 2016/17 could surpass 1000 for the first time in 6 years.

Influencing the number of homelessness approaches is a challenge, as it is a statutory right for households to do so.

The increase in homelessness is a national trend but has been particularly acute in Derby over the last few years. The decrease in supported housing and floating support has contributed to a decrease in our ability to prevent homelessness at an early stage.

Homelessness approach and acceptance figures for Derby in quarter two of 2016/17 compared to Leicester and Nottingham.

The level of homelessness approach and acceptance for each local authority can be affected by a number of factors, such as a greater availability of alternate housing outside of the statutory route.

Social housing provision is also proportionally greater in Leicester and Nottingham along with both being awarded disproportionate homeless grant monies when compared with Derby, despite lobbying through the 'Fair Deal for Derby' Campaign.
